THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

Bounced from St. Mary's Home.

Because he had a quart bottle of whiskey in a pocket, and more inside, Joseph McGrath, 72 years old, who had been an inmate of St. Mary's home for the aged at West Hartford for 13 years, was put out of that institution. He has now brought suit for $1,000 against the institution, claiming that he paid that sum to the home for a home for life.

Waterbury.—Laborers employed by the city will receive $2 a day for nine hours' work after July 1 if the resolution of the board of aldermen Monday night becomes effective. The increase of 25 cents a day was authorized by a vote of 12 to 1 after an interesting debate.

The Kitchen Floor

Most housekeepers would prefer to keep the kitchen floor unpainted and "in the white," were it not for the labor of keeping such a floor in satisfactory condition. However, the work of scrubbing will be lightened and milk white floors can be easily attained, by dissolving in each pailful of warm water a tablespoon of Gold Dust washing powder. If scrubbed this way each week old stains that seem to be ground into the wood will soon disappear altogether. This is also excellent for scrubbing stone steps and woodwork.

Thornlea Club Surprises Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Keen on Anniversary.—Elm Which Shaded Lafayette Being Cut.—Glasco Man Sues Because of Hostler's Mistake.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Keen were happily surprised Monday evening by a visit from the members of the Thornlea club and their husbands. They came to celebrate their third wedding anniversary. Mrs. B. C. Bliss presented Mrs. Keen a handsome copper percolator with alcohol lamp and tray. A beautiful bouquet of roses was given by Mrs. A. F. Shaw. The guests brought their refreshments where were served, and a delightful evening was spent. The visitors included Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Haskill, Mrs. C. E. Spiker, Mrs. S. F. Walters, Mrs. W. E. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Paul, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Gane, and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Bliss.

Cutting 200-Year-Old Tree.

Workmen are cutting the big elm situated on the line between the property of E. May and Henry Guy on South Main street. There is no larger elm anywhere in Griswold. It is considerably over 100 feet high, with great spreading branches, each as large as a good sized tree. The tree is said to be all of 200 years old, and with it is connected much interesting history. Some years ago when the late H. L. Reade wrote his article about the great trees of Griswold, this one came in for historic mention, as it shaded the old house where Lafayette halted during his trip through Connecticut after the revolution. The reason for it being cut is that in high winds there is danger from falling branches.

Refuses Offers to Settle.

The evidence in the civil suit of Charles Chenille of Glasgow vs. Bailey & Co. of this place, was heard in the town court Monday before Judge H. H. Burnham, arguments to be made later. Last December Chenille put a team in Bailey & Co.'s stable here, and through an oversight one of the hostlers let other parties from Glasgow have the team, thinking it was theirs. The team was later smashed up. Mr. Bailey offers to settle all damages for the late necessary repairs, but the owner couldn't see it and wanted to settle for $100 or nothing, and brought suit to recover that amount. J. J. Desmond and Arthur M. Brown are representing respectively Mr. Chenille and Mr. Bailey.

RETURN FROM NORWICH.

Chief Richmond Hints to Eva Green That Her Mother May Consent to Marriage with Selah Palmer.

Selah Palmer and Eva Green, the young couple from Mansfield who spent Sunday evening at a hotel in this city, went to Rhode Island and tried to get married, but the law in that state requires a license at least five days before the ceremony is performed and that the couple did not possess. They returned to Norwich Monday evening, staying at the Waukegan house, one on the fourth floor, and the other on the second floor, as told in Tuesday's Norwich news.

Chief E. H. Richmond received word from people interested in the young couple Monday evening to call off the search for them. Tuesday forenoon the couple returned from Norwich, and Chief Richmond advised them to go to the home of the girl's mother, who was ill, stating that, under the circumstances, in his opinion it would not be difficult to obtain Mrs. Green's consent to the marriage of her daughter and Mr. Palmer. The couple left for Mansfield Tuesday noon.

ON HUSBAND'S COMPLAINT.

Mrs. Tekla Badga Bound Over to May Term.—Charged With Living With Another Woman's Husband.

Tekla Badga, arrested at 20 Lafayette street at Monday evening, by Chief E. H. Richmond, and locked up on the charge of adultery, was given a preliminary hearing in police court Tuesday morning.

The arrest was the result of a complaint made by the woman's husband, Michael Badga, a butler employed by a wealthy Greenwich man. Badga came to this city Monday. When put to plea in court Mrs. Badga said "Not guilty." She was bound over to the superior court for the county and the case will come up at the May term in this city.

Chief Richmond informed the court that some ten years ago the woman and complaint were married at St. Joseph's church in this city. They later returned to Poland and resided for a number of years. Three years ago the husband left his wife in Poland and came to this country, obtaining work at Greenwich. Two children were left with the wife. The husband later found that his wife had left Poland with a man who deserted a wife and six children. The accused and the wife in question came to this country as man and wife and resided in Philadelphia for a while until a short time ago the woman came to this city. Saturday the man came here also and spent two days with the woman. He then left for Perth Amboy, N. J.

The woman claimed that while her husband was in Greenwich he had sent her but a small sum of money and he would not permit her to come to his country and live with him. She said that he had called her bad names and drove her into doing what she had done.

WEDDINGS.

Racine-Moore.

Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock at St. Mary's church, Miss Eva Moore was united in marriage by Rev. John J. Papillon. Following the ceremony a reception was held and breakfast served at the home of the bride's relatives, 41 Ves street. Mr. and Mrs. Racine left on the afternoon train for a honeymoon trip that will include Providence and Boston.

Teller-Duchessneau.

At 8 o'clock in the same church, Nereid Teller and Miss Adeline Duchesneau were married by Rev. C. J. Lemieux. Witnesses to the ceremony were Nereid Teller and Odoriel Duchesneau. After the wedding a reception was held and a breakfast served at the home of the bride's parents.

The lot comprises pink, white and yellow perch and bass. The fingerings will be put into Lake Wampanoag, South Coventry.

Eugene F. Collins' Condition Critical. Tuesday afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital word was given out that there was but small hope for Eugene F. Collins, foreman of Alert hose company, No. 1, who suffered a stroke in the parsons of the company Sunday evening. Mr. Collins is still in a state of coma. His relatives have all been notified and most of them have arrived in town.

REVALUATION OF ALL TAXABLE PROPERTY. Sum of $4,000 Voted to Cover Expense of Work, at Special Town Meeting.

Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton read the warrant, at the special town meeting in the town hall Tuesday evening. The meeting was called for the purpose of assessing whether the voters of Willimantic would ratify the appropriation of $4,000 for making a revaluation of all the taxable property of the town, as was voted at a recent special town meeting. Albert E. Currier was chosen moderator. It was voted that the polls be open for one hour. These voters were appointed: J. H. Morrison, A. C. Scripture, Clerk; Fenton acted as checker and Charles S. Wheeler as ballot box tender. When the polls closed at 9 o'clock and the votes counted, it was found that 168 had voted yes and 23 no. Moderator Currier declared the appropriation ratified and the meeting adjourned.
